“ Brian was more than just a co-worker, he was a great friend. He lived honorably, and defined by his actions and mannerisms the terms - integrity, honesty, courtesy and humility, along with a genuine concern for those which with he worked and interacted. I will deeply miss his brotherly like relationship.

“ Brian was the best brother in law, the best husband my sister could've asked for. He was always there for all of us, no matter what. He stayed with me while my mom was in the hospital and never left my side. He was the most caring, generous person i have ever met and i'm so happy to have had him become part of our family. I remember the first time we really bonded, we spent like 3 hours just talking about music that we liked and bands we both listened to. i still remember the disgusted look on his face when i told him that i loved Mick Jagger & when we went into a 20 minute rant about how music these days isn't as good & how bad Slipknot is. i miss him a lot, but i know he's still with us, he's still with my sister. we love you, Brian. thank you for being a gnarly big brother to me x

“ Brian loved his family. This was obvious the last time we saw him, when we visited Kyle in the fall and cheered with Brian for his boys, TJ & Nathan, at their sports events. So, so sorry for your loss, TJ, Nathan, Kyle, and all who knew and loved Brian. Our hearts go out to you all and our prayers, along with the prayers of many of our friends, are with you, asking God to comfort and sustain you during this very difficult time. We are here for you, in any way we can help. Love, Ron & Becky Eisemann, in Downey, CA
