

Gary Maurice Potter

June 12, 1952 - November 21, 2015

As witnesses by God and in the arms of his daughter Cassandra Potter of Phoenix, Gary was called home; Saturday; November 21, 2015. He also leaves behind his son, Gregory Potter of Scottsdale.

He was held dear by many and few escaped his practical jokes. Gary's life journey began in 1952 in Harrisburg, PA to the late Ray and Doris Potter. Joining two others at home, Barbara "Gail" Blomburg (Anchorage, AK) and David Potter (New Bloomfield, PA) and later joined by Melinda "Mindy" Potter (Carlisle, PA) all who survive.

He was a graduate of Halifax High School where he participated in sports. He went on to join the Air Force where he developed a lifelong interest and career in computers. He was a pioneer in installing POS computers in the phoenix area grocery stores in the early 80's. Employment took him and his family all over the U.S.

He returned back to the Valley to live life as he wanted amongst his children and friends. For all the lives he touched, thank you. You were blessings in his life.

Gary will be laid to rest on December 15, 2015 at 2:00 pm at the National Memorial Cemetery.
