

LeVore Freeman

November 4, 1960 - May 4, 2013

LeVore Hammonds-Freeman left earth early morning, May 04, 2013, leaving behind her memory of resilience and strength. She was born November 4, 1960 in Syracuse, NY. She was employed at Banner Good Samaritan Hospital. She was a Woman of Faith that loved life, offered help, gave hope and courage to all, reminding all of us of the most important things in life – Love, Laughter and Support!

LeVore will be missed by her loving family and friends. She is survived by her mother, Annie Pearl Hammonds, and deceased father Gilbert Thomas. She leaves behind her loving husband, her “rock” Keenan who has been with her through every part of her journey, 2 beautiful children, Johnny and Sydnee and 3 grandchildren. She has 6 sisters and 3 brothers, and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Memorial services celebrating LeVore’s life will be held at Camelback Church of Christ, 5225 E. Camelback Rd, Phoenix AZ on Thursday, May 9 at noon.
