“ I have so many memories of Sara, but the one that her and I laughed and cried the most about was a couple years ago Sara wanted to buy one of the boys a new bed. I knew she didn't have a lot of money to buy something so I told her that my three-year-old daughter needed a smaller bed The one she had was way too big for her it was meant for an older child.. I offered to give it to Sarah and she was very grateful she came out to my house one day to pick it up and just loved playing with my daughter Brooklynn. Brook asked me mommy why is she taking my bed? I said I see needs it for one of her boys and we are getting you a smaller one so you don't fall off of it anymore!! She said OK so we helped to load it up. As Sarah was getting in the car to leave my three-year-old daughter Mooned her, I was so embarrassed and didn't even know what to say I have never seen her do that before. Sara just started laughing hysterically she couldn't stop saying how cute my daughter was and how funny that was. Me still being embarrassed started laughing with Sara we laughed so hard we were crying. And my daughter kept mooning her because now she thought it was funny too!! I'll never forget that day it's one I will always cherish.. She wasn't only my boss at one time she was my friend after that we had many more laughs and cries together. I will miss you dearly my friend I love you Sara!!!

“ Sara and I were cousins and grew up together. She was like a sister to me and knowing that she is gone is so hard for me. We as kids had sleepovers, dressing up, and sledding at the metro parks. I do remember her falling out of my mom's very old car as my mom turned the corner and the door popped open and out tumbled Sara. She of course was OK. I remember her telling us that she was going to be a mom for the first time. She was full of life and devoted her life to the men in her life: James, her dad Peter(who is my godfather) and of course the two best things in her life: Sam(age15) and Adam(age9). She was the best daughter, partner, niece, cousin, friend, and of course mother. I will miss her terribly and now know she is with her mom, my aunt Jackie and our grandparents. I wish for her Sam and Adam to know how much their mom loved them and to always remember the goodtimes and know she is their guardian angel. Love u all.
Love u Sara forever! Ur cousin, Lori
